June 7 & 9, Other People's Children

2 and 7:30 p.m.

Directed by Rebecca Zlotowski, 2022, France, Not Rated, 103 min., Subtitled

When dedicated high school teacher Rachel (Virginie Efira) falls in love with Ali (Roschdy Zem), it's not long before she also falls for his 4-year-old daughter Leila. When she begins to long for a child of her own, Rachel must decide whether to embrace the inherent entanglements of her current situation or strike out again on her own.

June 14 & 16, BlackBerry

2 and 7:30 p.m.

Directed by Matthew Johnson, 2023, United States, Rated R, 119 min.

Jay Baruchel and Glenn Howerton star in the "true story" of the meteoric rise and catastrophic demise of the world's first smartphone. BlackBerry is a whirlwind ride through ruthlessly competitive Silicon Valley at breakneck speeds.

June 21 & 23, Polite Society

2 and 7:30 p.m.

Directed by Nida Manzoor, 2023, United Kingdom, Rated PG-13, 103 min.

A merry mashup of sisterly affection, parental disappointment and bold action, "Polite Society" follows martial artist-in-training Ria Khan (Priya Kansara) who believes she must save her older sister Lena (Ritu Arya) from her impending marriage. After enlisting the help of her friends, Ria attempts to pull off the most ambitious of all wedding heists in the name of independence and sisterhood.

June 28 & 30, The Eight Mountains

2 and 7:30 p.m.

Directed by Felix van Groeningen and Charlotte Vandermeersch 2022, Italy, Not Rated, 147 min., Subtitled

After meeting as children over a series of summers in the Italian Alps, Pietro (Luca Marinelli) and Bruno (Alessandro Borghi) reunite as adults to build a mountainside cottage which becomes the site of both reflection and reconciliation.
