A Nice Indian Boy* | June 4 and 6

Directed by Roshan Sethi, 2025, United States
Not Rated, 96 min.

Based on Madhuri Shekar's play, this romantic comedy follows Naveen (Karan Soni), an Indian-American doctor, who introduces his fiancé Jay (Jonathan Groff), a white man adopted by Indian parents, to his traditional family. The film humorously and poignantly explores cultural expectations and queer identity. Supporting cast includes Sunita Mani, Zarna Garg, and Harish Patel. Premiering at SXSW 2024, it garnered acclaim across festivals, winning the Sherzum Award at the Hamptons International Film Festival.

Grand Tour* | June 11 and 13

Directed by Miguel Gomes, 2025, Portugal
Not Rated, 129 min., subtitled

This historical drama stars Gonçalo Waddington and Crista Alfaite. Set in 1917 colonial Burma, it follows British civil servant Edward, who flees his fiancée, Molly, on their wedding day, prompting a chase across Asia. The film blends melodrama and screwball comedy. It premiered at the Cannes Film Festival, where Gomes won Best Director, and later secured Best Film, Best Director, and Best Editing at Portugal's Sophia Awards.

The Wedding Banquet* | June 18 and 20

Directed by Andrew Ahn, 2025, United States
Rated R, 103 minutes

A contemporary reimagining of Ang Lee's 1993 classic, directed by Andrew Ahn, this romantic comedy features Bowen Yang, Lily Gladstone, Kelly Marie Tran, Han Gi-chan, Joan Chen, and Youn Yuh-jung. Set in Seattle, it follows two queer couples navigating love, immigration, and family expectations. The film premiered at the 2025 Sundance Film Festival and was released in theaters on April 18, 2025.

Holy Cow* | June 25 and 27

Directed by Louise Courvoisier, 2025, France
Not Rated, 92 min., subtitled

This French coming-of-age drama stars Clément Faveau as Totone, a troubled teen in rural Jura who enters a prestigious cheesemaking competition to save his family's farm. The film's raw portrayal of rural life and nonprofessional cast earned it critical acclaim. It won the Youth Award at Cannes, Best First Film at the César Awards, and the Prix Jean Vigo.
